

MAGic2015 arrival information

This document will assist you in reaching our reception desk at the University of Sussex campus in Falmer. The conference takes place in the Jubilee and Fulton Buildings and the Global Studies Resource Centre.

The conference book

The PDF and EPUB versions of the conference book are now available for download on the MAGic2015 homepage.

Travel

The University of Sussex campus at Falmer is on the outskirts of Brighton and easily accessible by train or car. Falmer train station is directly opposite the University campus. Pedestrian access is through a subway under the A27 - follow signs for the University of Sussex (the University of Brighton has a campus at Falmer too). Falmer is on the line between Brighton and Lewes, about eight minutes' travel time in each direction. Four trains an hour go there during the day time. For train timings please see the the National Rail website here: If you are driving to the venue, there is on-site parking and a parking permit can be downloaded here.

The MAGic2015 site's travel page has a link to comprehensive travel information from the University of Sussex website here. The University of Sussex campus is situated in one of the most beautiful counties of England, so for those who plan to extend their stay, or move beyond the environs of the campus, more information on Sussex, Brighton and the surrounding area can be found here and here.

Taxis

Local taxi companies:

Streamline - 01273 202020

Brighton & Hove radio cabs - 01273 204060

(For those arriving by train, there is a large taxi rank in front of Brighton Station.)

When is conference reception open?

Reception will NOT be open before 09:30 on Wednesday: we will not be able to issue you with your programme/badge before then. Reception will be situated on the ground floor of the Jubilee building. NomadIT's office will be located in room G36 in Jubilee on the 9th and in room G35 in Jubilee on the 10th and 11th. On the 10th and 11th reception will open at 08:45.

Wifi in the conference venue

The campus network is 'Conferences'. The password for the week of the conference is rely our digger (all lowercase with normal spaces).

Those presenting

Please bring any files you wish to present on a memory stick, and bring to your panel room 15 minutes before the session, to upload and check. There will be a t-shirt wearing team member present to assist.

Those convening

Strict time-keeping is crucial to a good conference. This is your responsibility. Please ensure each presenter gets their fair share of the time, and do not overrun into the breaks. Your session may be over, but other sessions or meetings may be scheduled to use your room next, and they may be wanting to anxiously fiddle with their memory sticks. The largest complaint we receive is regards to convenors altering the paper order from that in the book and online, on the day, so please do your best to avoid this. If you do alter the order, please mark this in the running sheet on the door, and if possible make the alteration online, too.

Accommodation

Accommodation can still be booked online up until the 2nd of September, via the link to the VisitBrighton website. After the 2nd please visit their website for accommodation information, or other online accommodation sites.

Catering

Tea/coffee breaks and lunches will all be served in the Jubilee social space, near reception. In order to get your food and drink, please make sure you are wearing your conference badge!

On the first evening, Wednesday the 9th, there will be a welcome reception with wine and canapes, on the ground floor social space of the Jubilee Building, starting at 18:00.

The conference dinner will take place on Thursday evening, which required pre-purchase of tickets. This will be a three-course sit-down meal with wine at Stanmer House. This is currently fully-booked but some people may no longer want their banquet ticket, and others will want to snap them up. The NomadIT conference office will be running an exchange list to assist this process. First come, first served.

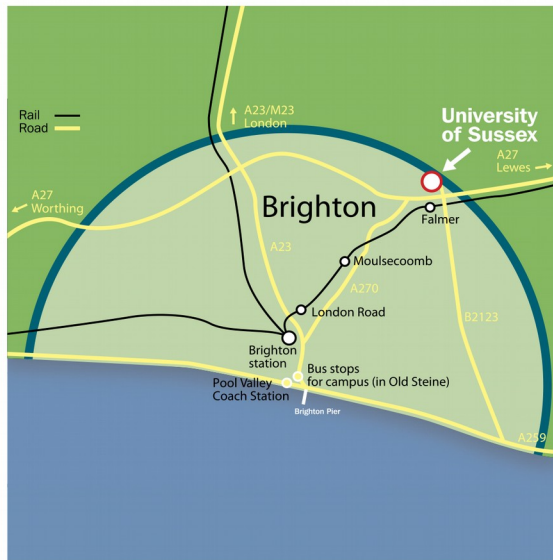

All delegates are welcome to come up to Stanmer House for the party after the dinner. There will be music and dancing from 9ish with the Ska Toons, who have been described as 'a rocking collision of ska, funk and jazz, where Prince Buster meets Duke Ellington, The Skatalites meet Charles Mingus and The Ventures meet Don Drummond'.

Welcome to the University of Sussex

We are located at Falmer, just outside Brighton on the south coast of the UK, about 50 miles south of London. We have excellent public transport links – read on to find out the best way to reach us.

Our campus

Sussex has one of the most beautiful campus locations in Britain. Situated in rolling parkland, the campus combines award-winning architecture with green open spaces. The campus is surrounded by the South Downs National Park, yet it lies just a few minutes away from the lively city of Brighton & Hove.

Designed by Sir Basil Spence, the buildings that make up the heart of the campus were given listed building status in 1993. Falmer House is one of only two educational buildings in the UK to be Grade I listed in recognition of its exceptional interest.

Train

Falmer train station is directly opposite the University campus – just follow the signs for the University of Sussex. Falmer is on the line between Brighton and Lewes, about eight minutes travel time in each direction, with trains running every 15 minutes.

Visitors travelling via London and the west should take a train to Brighton and change there for Falmer. The journey time from London to Brighton is just under an hour. If you are coming from the east, you can also change at Lewes for Falmer. Find out more at www.nationalrail.co.uk

Coach

National Express coaches to Brighton depart from London Victoria Coach Station and arrive at Pool Valley in the centre of the city. Services are every hour during the day and take about two hours. Coaches also run to Brighton from Gatwick and Heathrow. From Pool Valley you need to walk 100 metres to the Old Steine where you can catch a bus direct to the University (see buses section on the right), or you can take a taxi. Find out more at www.nationalexpress.com

Taxi

Taxis are available at both Brighton and Lewes train stations and at many places in the centre of Brighton. It is about four miles (six kilometres) from central Brighton to the University. There is no taxi service at Falmer station itself. It is often quicker to catch the train direct to Falmer from Brighton or Lewes.

Car

The University is at Falmer on the A27 between Brighton and Lewes, about four miles (six kilometres) from the centre of Brighton. Please follow the signs for the University of Sussex on the north side of the A27; the University of Brighton also has a campus at Falmer on the south side of the A27. Visitors from London and the north should take the M23/A23 road towards Brighton. Before entering the centre of Brighton, join the A27 eastbound, signposted Lewes. Drivers from the east or west take the A27 direct to the University.

Parking

It is best to obtain a scratch-card parking permit from the school or unit you are visiting before you come, as parking can be costly if you pay on arrival. Car parking permits for conference delegates are available from Conferences and events.

Local buses

The 23 and 25 buses run between the centre of Brighton and the University, bringing you directly onto and around campus. You can catch a bus from the Old Steine in Brighton; the 25 also runs from Churchill Square. In addition, the 28 and 29 go from the Old Steine and stop right outside the University campus on their way to Lewes and beyond. Travel time is about 20-30 minutes. Bus timetables and information are available from www.buses.co.uk

Arriving from overseas

By air

The closest airport to Brighton is London Gatwick, which is 30 minutes away by train. London Heathrow is around two hours away by coach. European budget airlines tend to fly to Luton, Stansted and London City airports, but please be aware that these are some distance away from Brighton, although public transport links are available.

Channel tunnel rail link

Eurostar operates train services from continental Europe via the Channel Tunnel. From the London St Pancras domestic terminal you can take a train direct to Brighton.

By sea

Cross-channel car and passenger ferries operate between Dieppe in France and Newhaven, which then has a direct train link to Falmer. From Portsmouth or Southampton, take the train to Brighton and change for Falmer. From any other port, take the train to London and travel from Victoria train station via Brighton.
