Opening the ENDA Early Career Workshop

"Use and Misuse of Technologies"

Social media platforms, websites, smartphone games and apps are all designed with specific functions in mind. Yet, the ways in which these software-based technologies are used by people often deviate from their envisioned purposes. This workshop explores the (un)intentional use and misuse of technologies and the wide array of research possibilities it holds for digital anthropologists.

27th & 28th June 2025, Cork, Ireland
Centre for Executive Education, University College Cork

Convenors

Rebekah Cupitt (Birkbeck), James Cuffe (UCC) and Jolynna Sinanan (U. Manchester).
